There was another incident of door-to-door solicitors on Tuesday, Aug. 29, on the east side of town. A Deer Park Neighbor member, alerted by earlier emails on this subject, called the Kildeer police, who responded immediately.

We emailed President Gifford that same day, asking if there is a more current ordinance on solicitation than what is on the village web site [Title XI: Business Regulations, CHAPTER 115: PEDDLERS AND SOLICITORS, page 202, VODP Municipal Code dated April 2003] .

We also asked him, as Peace Officer, to tell us how residents can best handle these aggressive solicitors. We await his reply, which we will share.

In the meantime, it's going to be a beautiful long weekend. We all get careless sometimes, but let's be watchful neighbors. Close your garage and shed doors, and lock your house, whether you're out back or away from home. And keep an eye on the homes around you.

Happy holiday, drive safely and see you September 10 at Charlie Brown Park, 2-4 pm, for the Deer Park Neighbors Open Meeting. In answer to your calls and emails, yes! of course, bring your kids, and bring yourself a lawn chair!
